

MAIL CAR HELD UP
BY LONE BANDIT

Car and Goods Four Clerks Near
Kansas City and Fleet With Registered Pouch Contents.

KANSAS CITY, April 4.—A lone bandit boarded a westbound Santa Fe train last night at Henrietta, Mo., held up the four mail clerks, burst open mail pouches and rifled the mail contents. He jumped from the train with the loot at Henrietta, a Kansas City suburb.

Postal officials refused to make a statement regarding the value of registered packages stolen, but it became known that a considerable amount of bonds and currency had been carried in that car for some nights.

The clerk in charge of the car, described a good description of the bandit, and said he was forced to flee as the other clerks and himself, then were tied and forced to lie on the floor. The bandit, he said, left the registered pouches, carefully selected his loot and dropped from the train as it moved for a crossing at Henrietta. The subject tried to catch the express car, but the door was locked.
